

Awards and Honors

2014 Honoree as a “Top 40 Under 40” for work as an Economic Damages Expert
by NACVA and CTI.

Chad Staller, J.D., M.B.A., M.A.C., C.V.A President, Senior Economist

800.966.6099 | 215.546.5600 | fax 215.732.8158
cstaller@cfes.com

Practice Concentration:

Commercial damages (lost profits), personal-injury and wrongful-death damages, and damages and liability in labor and employment matters

Professional Experience:

Mr. Staller has extensive experience working with both plaintiff and defense counsel in a wide variety of civil matters, quantifying loss sustained by many types of plaintiffs, including union members, state and federal employees, business owners and injured children. He regularly analyzes claims brought in employment-discrimination matters, quantifying back-pay and front-pay damages and lost benefits, and frequently consults on commercial matters, analyzing lost-profit and business-interruption claims. He serves on the faculty of Temple University’s Beasley School of Law LL.M. in Trial Advocacy program and lectures regularly at Villanova University School of Law. He frequently presents seminars and speaks on forensic-economic topics at law firms and before professional organizations.

Education:

Villanova University, Master of Accountancy. 2006.

Temple University, Fox School of Business & Management, Master of Business Administration, Certificate of Academic Excellence, Concentration in Business Administration. 2005.

Temple University’s James E. Beasley School of Law. Juris Doctor, Cum Laude. 2001.

Lehigh University, Bachelor of Science in Business and Economics. 1998.

Testimony:

Federal Court: District of Columbia, District of New Jersey, Eastern District of Pennsylvania, Middle District of Pennsylvania, Southern District of New York, District of Delaware, Eastern District of New York, District of Maryland
State Courts: Florida, Maryland, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Ohio, Illinois, Massachusetts, Washington D.C.