

James Markham, Ph.D., J.D., CPCU
Senior Economist

800.966.6099 | 215.546.5600 | fax 215.732.8158
jmarkham@cfes.com

Concentration:

Commercial damages (lost profits), personal-injury and wrongful-death damages, damages and liability in labor and employment matters

Professional Experience:

Prior to joining the Center, Mr. Markham served as Senior Vice President and head of the curriculum department at the American Institute for CPCU (Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter), where he developed many of the Institute's academic courses and programs. He has also worked as a liability claims examiner and has practiced law.

He is the author and editor of numerous texts on insurance topics and has taught economics courses at Temple University, The University of Delaware and Villanova University.

Education:

University of Delaware, January 2009, Ph.D., Economics

American Institute for CPCU/Insurance Institute of America; Associate in Claims (AIC) 1985; Associate in Insurance Accounting and Finance (AIAF) 1988; Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) 1987

Temple University, 1985, MSBA – joint MBA and MS in Finance

Villanova University School of Law, 1979, JD

Brandeis University, 1976, BA – Economics

Testimony:

Mr. Markham has testified in Maryland, New Hampshire, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Washington, D.C.